

List of tables

Table 3.1 Transition probabilities (15-month) between labour force states, Indigenous males and females (percentage)	61
Table 3.2 Marginal effect of CDEP and other labour force categories on selected social and economic outcomes, 2008 . .	64
Table 3.3 Hypothetical simulations of the ‘effect’ of loss of 35,000 CDEP jobs	66
Table 3.4 Administrative data on local CDEP schemes at time of 2006 and 2011 census (8 August)	69
Table 3.5 Working-age population (aged 15–64 years) and major mining investment in remote IAREs by 2006 CDEP employment rates in 2006.	73
Table 3.6 Labour market outcomes for 15–64-year-olds by Indigenous status, Wallaga Lake, 2006 and 2011	78
Table 4.1 Labour force characteristics for Bega, Eden and Wallaga Lake Indigenous Locations, Indigenous people aged 15–64 years, 2006 and 2011	104
Table 7.1 Bawinanga annual reporting 1999–2011	184
Table 7.2 Range of BAC activities by headings reported in narrative annual reports 1999–2000 to 2010–11	187
Table 7.3 BAC grants, trading and other income, and total income 2000–01 to 2013–14	191

This text is taken from Better Than Welfare?: Work and livelihoods for Indigenous Australians after CDEP, edited Kirrily Jordan, published 2016 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.