

Tables

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Table 3.1: Planned programs offered by the SMCPS . . . . .                                       | 59  |
| Table 4.1: Establishment and actual strength of the Hong KongPolice Force, 2005–10 . . . . . | 72  |
| Table 4.2: Training targets of the three command courses,2011–12 to 2013–14 . . . . .        | 84  |
| Table 4.3: Expenditure of Hong Kong Police College (HK$). . . . .                               | 87  |
| Table 4.4: Overseas and Mainland Development Training(OMDT) program . . . . .                | 88  |
| Table 4.5: Overseas Vocational Training (OVT) program . . . . .                                  | 88  |
| Table 5.1: Recruitment numbers for the national civilservice, 2014 . . . . .                 | 107 |
| Table 6.1: Korean Government legislation relating to training. . . . .                           | 129 |
| Table 8.1: Former chairpersons of the CESB and theiraccomplishments . . . . .                | 155 |
| Table 8.2: Positions in the Career Executive Service . . . . .                                   | 158 |
| Table 8.3: CES ranking structure . . . . .   | 159 |
| Table 9.1: CSC revenue from training . . . . .   | 198 |
| Table 10.1: Composition of the Taiwanese Civil Service(as at the end of 2011). . . . .       | 217 |
| Table 10.2: Training programs provided by the DGPA . . . . .                                     | 222 |
| Table 10.3: Number of TOP 100 trainees by sex, 2010–11. . . . .                                  | 225 |

This text is taken from Sharpening the Sword of State: Building executive capacities in the public services of the Asia-Pacific, edited by Andrew Podger and John Wanna, published 2016 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.