

List of Illustrations

Figures 1 and 2. Reclining dusky maidens provide a tranquil frame for the romance of travel for leisure, and through the important inclusion of tourism technology and infrastructure, fantasy meets reality through the prospect of touring . . . . . 7

Figure 3. Images of childlike fun speak to touristic fantasies of escape from mundane life while also echoing primitivist tropes of native innocence and spontaneity . . . . . 9

Figure 4. A long-standing favourite—images of ultra-modern cruise ships looming over ‘stone age’, ‘primitive’ or ‘traditional’ outriggers remain a key signifier of tourism’s magical powers of transportation, such that suggest journeys through time as well as space. . . . . 11

Figure 5. Typifying the nexus of tourism and contemporary colonialism, Queen Elizabeth II is given an elevated royal welcome as she arrives on Rarotonga by British Airways to officiate at the grand opening of the Rarotonga International Airport, 1974 . . . . . 12

Figure 6. This example of touristic material culture and imagery can be read as being equally if not more reflective of class-related labour mobility within the context of colonialism than tourism per se. . . . . 13

Figure 7. Stealing sheets and blankets! . . . . . 34

Figure 8. Stealing the bedclothes . . . . . 35

Figure 9. John G. Paton lapel pin . . . . . 37

Figure 10. Magic lantern slide, Erromanga New Hebrides (Uhuvili and his child) . . . . . 40

Figure 11. John Paton, as postcard . . . . . 41

Figure 12. Paton in white . . . . .	43
Figure 13. Light and dark. . . . .	43
Figure 14. The missionary's 'gun' . . . . .	44
Figure 15. Bible vs rifle. . . . .	45
Figure 16. Heathen darkness, before. . . . .	46
Figure 17. Christian light, after . . . . .	46
Figure 18. School supplants kava houses . . . . .	47
Figure 19. Heathen and Christian. . . . .	48
Figure 20. Old men and their broken gods . . . . .	50
Figure 21. The order of the bath. . . . .	51
Figure 22. The new Christian family. . . . .	52
Figure 23. Dayspring's island crew . . . . .	53
Figure 24. 'English Méké', Wairarapa , June 1884 . . . . .	64
Figure 25. Burning the Bounty . . . . .	75
Figure 26. Christian's Cave . . . . .	77
Figures 27 and 28. Pitcairn Island . . . . .	78
Figure 29. Pitcairn longboat. . . . .	79
Figure 30. Pitcairn crafts . . . . .	81
Figure 31. Cruise ship passengers arrive at Bounty Bay . . . . .	83
Figure 32. Cover image from the orientation materials my parents received in 1975. . . . .	100
Figure 33. With my father and mother on Kwajalein, 1976. . . . .	102
Map 1. Kwajalein Atoll. Kwajalein is the southernmost islet of Kwajalein Atoll, shown here in the lower-left inset. . . . .	103
Figure 34. Aerial photo of Kwajalein Atoll . . . . .	107
Figure 35. Neitari Pound in 1978 on Kwajalein. . . . .	109
Figure 36. Kwajalein Missile Monument in 1977. . . . .	111
Figure 37. 'Places to Go and Things to Do on Kwajalein'. . . . .	113
Figure 38. 'Safety Note' . . . . .	115

Figure 39. Operation Homecoming in 1982. . . . .	119
Figure 40. Postcard of Jaluit Atoll, Nanyō Guntō Mandated Islands of Japan, pandanus trees and Islanders, cancelled with Jaluit Post Office stamp, c. 1935 . . . . .	123
Figure 41. Nanyō Meguri Sugoroku board game. . . . .	124
Figure 42. Satake Esu visiting Kwajalein Japanese Cemetery in 2005 . . . . .	127
Figure 43. Offerings from bereaved families at the Japanese War Dead Memorial in 2005, Kwajalein . . . . .	129
Figure 44. Japanese and Korean military construction corps workers building the base at Kwajalein, 1944. . . . .	130
Figures 45 and 46. The special place. . . . .	134
Figure 47. Performer. Ali Korey Vaifale. Culture for Sale . City Gallery, Wellington, 21 February 2014 . . . . .	142
Figure 48. Performer. Ali Korey Vaifale. Culture for Sale . City Gallery, Wellington, 21 February 2014 . . . . .	143
Figure 49. Photographs of men from the Samoan Village taken at the Columbian Exhibition, Chicago, 1893 . . . . .	158
Figure 50. Photograph of women from the Samoan Village taken at the Columbian Exhibition, Chicago, 1893 . . . . .	158
Figure 51. ‘Samoan Belles’. Mid-Winter Fair, San Francisco, 1894. .	161
Figure 52. ‘Samoan Girls Polonga and Olonga’. Mid-Winter Fair, San Francisco, 1894 . . . . .	161
Figure 53. Exterior view of Aulani, A Disney Resort & Spa with the lo’i kalo in the foreground . . . . .	171
Figure 54. Untitled bas-relief based on a chant composed by Doug Tolentino in honour of the O’ahu chief Kākuhihewa, by Carl F.K. Pao, 2011 . . . . .	172
Figure 55. Untitled bas-relief based on the story of the demi-god Maui, by Harinani Orme, 2011 . . . . .	173
Figure 56. Kapa prints representing the goddess Hina, by Dalani Tanahy, 2011 . . . . .	175
Figure 57. Makahiki mural, by Solomon Enos, 2011 . . . . .	178

Figure 58. Betu Watas, Tolak Telkon, and Mathias Watskon building the one-quarter-size model of a land-diving tower in front of the State Museum for Ethnography in Munich, June 2009 . . . . .	184
Figure 59. UrSprung brochure . . . . .	184
Figure 60. The caravan behind the museum in Munich . . . . .	186
Figure 61. Kava preparation . . . . .	187
Figure 62. Lunch at the beer hall . . . . .	188
Map 2. Vanuatu and inset in relation to Australia . . . . .	192
Map 3. Pentecost Island showing villages . . . . .	193
Figure 63. Lipp’s table expounding and critiquing earlier approaches . . . . .	196
Figure 64. Gol —tapering to the top or ‘head’ of tower . . . . .	198
Figure 65. Gol —a diver poised to jump from the middle of the tower . . . . .	200
Figure 66. Gol —a diver in full flight . . . . .	201
Figure 67. A young man wearing a penis wrapper and bark belt about to dive, epitomising hot, youthful masculinity . . . . .	204
Figure 68. Tourists witnessing a gol on the west coast of Pentecost . . . . .	211
Figure 69. Spectators, necks craning upwards, and feeling ‘uncannily disempowered’ or ‘small’ underneath the tower . . . . .	215
Figure 70. Jif Telkon Watas clutching a yam and his son Waris Sus . . . . .	218
Figure 71. Image of the welcoming and available Māori women . . . . .	230
Figure 72. Image of the welcoming and available Māori women . . . . .	231
Figure 73. As yet unidentified Māori woman weaving in taniko method . . . . .	232
Figure 74. Unidentified Māori women with poi, piupiu and white dresses accompanied by two men . . . . .	233
Figure 75. Young Māori woman wearing piupiu as ‘traditional’ Māori dress, early twentieth century . . . . .	234

- Figure 76. A variety of pari depicted in a monograph on the subject of taniko weaving. Performers from Ngati Porou of the East Coast of the North Island Aotearoa . . . . . 235
- Figure 77. Unidentified Māori women in dance performance wearing a variety of pari. Pickwick Club, Sydney, 1962. . . . . 236
- Figure 78. My mother the late Te Mihinga Eileen Diamond in her early teens wearing a kuta pari . . . . . 237
- Figure 79. Kuta pari worn by children of a winning kapa haka team, Maraeroa, c. 16 April 1947 . . . . . 237
- Figure 80. My pari made of wool cross-stitch designed by my mother Te Mihinga Eileen Diamond and her sister Tarati Waetford . . . . . 238
- Figure 81. Nat Sullivan of Canberra-based Māori kapa haka, Te Rere o te Tarakakao wearing their distinctive green and gold pari based on Australian uniform colours . . . . . 239
- Figure 82. Members of Te Kotuku Māori kapa haka, Sydney, wearing their distinctive uniform, including pari. . . . . 240
- Figure 83. Keren Ruki, 1999, Māori girl (a kākahu) 120 x 90 cm. Cotton, tape, cane, iron-on transfers. . . . . 242
- Figure 84. The author dancing awkwardly at the community day. . . . . 247
- Figure 85. Conference participants and others at Germaine’s Lu’au with refinery in background . . . . . 256
- Figure 86. Hiri Hanenamo tattooed lower leg . . . . . 261
- Figure 87. Frank and Nicholas at the Festival of Pacific Arts . . . . . 271
- Figure 88. Sinahemana Hekau . . . . . 274
- Figure 89. Aisea with some of his designs at the Fijian delegation hut at the 2012 FOPA. . . . . 277
- Figure 90. Central Province dancers gathered for the siokole . . . . . 280
- Figure 91. The totosi—opening sequence of the siokole wherein the Chief and warriors make their entrance while a conch shell is blown to signify the beginning of the dance performed at the Pacific Arts Festival . . . . . 281

- Figure 92. Na NILAU—dog’s teeth as form of traditional money to signify wealth and power . . . . . 282
- Figure 93. The staff (totogona) has faces on both sides to symbolise security and constant vigilance . . . . . 282
- Figure 94. Stillwest Longden, delegation coordinator, Central Province. . . . . 284
- Figure 95. Stillwest Longden and Central Province performers. . . 285
- Figure 96. Ku Le Le Damuleng . . . . . 286
- Figure 97. Amaya Sayfik and an Amis performer at the festival . . 287
- Figure 98. Moenau (left) and Teana (right) at the Kerry Park Lookout, Seattle . . . . . 299
- Figure 99. Teana and Moenau at the entrance to the University of Washington . . . . . 302
- Figure 100. The Pike Place Market . . . . . 303
- Figure 101. Teana and Moenau at Costco . . . . . 304
- Figure 102. Teana and Moenau at the Experience Music Project. . 306
- Figure 103. Teana and Paula Hoffman in a conference room at the Lighthouse . . . . . 307
- Figure 104. Helen Enguerra, Theresa Enguerra, Desiree Bungay, Anaiyah Johnson, Joash Tupufia, Savali Tupufia, Teana and Moenau at the Woodland Park Zoo . . . . . 308
- Figure 105. Teana and Moenau at the Mariners vs Brewers game at Safeco Field . . . . . 309
- Figure 106. Natalie Hart, Moenau, Ashley Bird, Teana at Tia Lou’s Lounge. . . . . 310
- Figure 107. Teana, Natalie Hart and Moenau at the Umoja Festival . . . . . 311
- Figure 108. Imitation of roasting humans at Fiji in former times. . 323
- Figure 109. Tina, wearing Trobriand dress, enjoying a performance at Karidakula (grounds of Butia Lodge) . . . . . 334
- Figure 110. Trobriand village. Wekuku hamlet, Yalumgwa. . . . . 339

Figure 111. A group tour gets an ‘up close’ encounter with Trobriand villagers, Yalumgwa Village . . . . .	344
Figure 112. Visiting tourists participating in a Trobriand cricket match . . . . .	345
Figure 113. Attending a sagali (funeral feast) is a highlight for many cultural tourists to the Trobriands. . . . .	348
Figure 114. The ‘simple life’ of the village, as romanticised by visitors . . . . .	349
Figure 115. Young girls fetching water, Vakuta Island . . . . .	353
Figure 116. ‘Don’t waste your smile on foreigners’ . . . . .	359
Figure 117. String band greeting Pacific Sun to Luganville. . . . .	366
Figure 118. Dolls and handicrafts for sale at a roadside ‘cruise ship day’ market, Luganville. . . . .	369
Figure 119. Children posing for photographs, Luganville. . . . .	370
Figure 120. The beautiful guest house at Bandit village . . . . .	382
Figure 121. Dancers emerging from the darkness . . . . .	383
Figure 122. Kungal headdresses . . . . .	384
Figure 123. The author at the end of the ‘unexperience’. . . . .	391
Figure 124. Tourism Cook Islands image of laughing mamas, 2015. . . . .	410
Figure 125. A kitchen with paradise poster . . . . .	411
Figure 126. Living room wall, South Auckland . . . . .	414
Figure 127. ‘Endless summer’: A Cook Islands Tourism poster on a kitchen wall . . . . .	415
Figure 128. ‘Autumnal crying woman’ poster and family photos. . .	416
Figure 129. South Auckland backyard . . . . .	418
Figure 130. View from the family land looking out across the lagoon, Rarotonga. . . . .	418
Figure 131. An infinity pool. . . . .	427

This text is taken from Touring Pacific Cultures, edited by Kalissa Alexeyeff and John Taylor, published 2016 by ANU Press,
The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.