

List of figures

Figure 1.1: Commonwealth taxes, 2016–17 ($billion and percentage)	7
Figure 1.2: Commonwealth expenditures, 2016–17 ($billion and percentage)	9
Figure 1.3: Main social security and welfare payments, 2016–17 ($billion)	10
Figure 1.4: Progressive marginal and average income tax rates (%) . . .	12
Figure 1.5: Women’s and men’s workforce participation, 1978–2017 (%)	17
Figure 1.6: Part-time and full-time workforce participation of women, 1978–2014 (%)	17
Figure 1.7: Gender labour supply gap (hours worked), 2015	18
Figure 1.8a: EMTRs per $1 of earnings, dual earner family with two children	20
Figure 1.8b: EMTRs per day of work, dual earner family with two children	20
Figure 2.1: Composition of revenues, selected OECD countries, 1995–2013	45
Figure 2.2: Average total and after-tax income, by age and gender, 2013	48
Figure 2.3: Individual and corporate shares of taxes on incomes, profits and capital gains, selected OECD countries, 2014	51
Figure 3.1: Rising inequality	73
Figure 3.2: Shift in tax burden towards the ‘middle’	74

Figure 3.3: Primary/second-earner superannuation balances by primary income	93
Figure 5.1: Maternal employment rates, 2014 or latest available year (Employment rates for women (15–64-year-olds) with at least one child aged 0–14)	143
Figure 5.2: Proportion of doctors who agree with the statement that their employment is restricted due to lack of access to child care	149
Figure 7.1: Unadjusted child care and market time by parent gender	213
Figure 7.2: Unadjusted child care and market time by parent gender, youngest child at preschool age.	214
Figure 7.3: Unadjusted child care and market time by parent gender, youngest child at school age.	214
Figure 8.1: Hourly wages by gender and education, 2014.	236
Figure 8.2: Weekly earnings by gender and education, 2014.	237
Figure 8.3: Annual earnings by gender and education, 2014.	238
Figure 8.4: Age–wage profiles of male workers	246
Figure 8.5: Age–wage profiles of female workers.	247
Figure 8.6: Average debt of male university graduates.	250
Figure 8.7: Average debt of female university graduates	251
Figure 9.1: Income shares of top income groups in Australia, 1970–71 to 2013–14.	261
Figure 9.2: Share of women in top percentiles, Australia.	264
Figure 9.3: Change in proportion of women in top 10 per cent since 2000, various countries	266
Figure 9.4: Age composition of men and women in the top 1 per cent, 2000–01 to 2012–13 (percentage of cohort)	268
Figure 9.5: Share of income from earnings, women in top 1 per cent, various countries.	272
Figure 9.6: Marginal income tax rates in Australia	278

Figure 9.7: Small- and medium-enterprise business/investment structure illustration.	280
Figure 10.1: Labour force participation rates by gender, trend	308
Figure 10.2: Part-time work by gender and age.	309
Figure 10.3: Distribution of tax concessions for superannuation contributions across taxable income categories	310
Figure 10.4: Distribution of male and female taxpayers across taxable income categories	310
Figure 10.5: Ratio of male to female average superannuation account balances, as measured in member contribution statements	311
Figure 10.6: Inequality in wealth within couple households, by age.	313
Figure 10.7: Inequality in superannuation within couple households, by age	314

This text is taken from Tax, Social Policy and Gender: Rethinking equality and efficiency, edited by Miranda Stewart, published 2017 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.