

Index

Note: Page numbers in italics indicate information contained in tables, graphics or other illustrative material.

- A Husband is not a Retirement Plan* report, 336. see also retirement
- age pension, 11, 26–27, 121, 188, 189
- adequacy of income, 302
- compared with superannuation, 91–94, 164
- introduced, 162
- means testing, 293, 296
- projected spending on, 315
- proposed contributory system, 180–181
- transition to retirement pension, 263
- aged dependency ratio (ADR), 90–91
- austerity measures, 14, 111, 123, 343
- Australian Time Use Survey (TUS), 210–211, 329–330, 338–339
- average tax rate (ATR), 75–76
- averages, 12–13
- compared to marginal tax rate (MTR), 81–86
- and family payments, 81–83
- of second-earner parents, 83–84
- Beijing Platform for Action, 38
- birth rates, 164, 189. see also fertility rates
- Bishop, Julie, 329–330
- bracket creep, 70, 71–72, 74–75
- breastfeeding, 169–171, 187–188, 335
- capital gains, 36, 50–52, 113, 262
- care. see also aged dependency ratio (ADR); child care; child dependency ratio (CDR)
- disability care, 13, 332, 335, 344
- elder care, 111, 332, 335, 344
- public responsibility, 344–346
- social insurance, 178–179
- care economy, 57, 78, 106, 152, 181–183
- breastfeeding, 169–171, 335
- care ratios, 90–91
- discussion, 21–23
- and economic growth, 163, 166–168, 169, 188
- in economic policy, 163–164
- gender gap in burden, 115, 187
- impact on gender pay gap, 169
- impact on women, 188–190
- impact on women’s workforce participation, 111
- investment in children, 162
- Cash, Michaelia, 16, 325
- CEDAW. see Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW)
- child care, 21–23, 148–150. see also Australian Time Use Survey (TUS); breastfeeding; primary carers

- access to, 140–141, 147, 153
- access, lack of, 53
- children as ‘public goods’, 167
- flexible work arrangements, 219–220
- funding, 88, 91, 334–336
- gender patterns, 209, 212–215, 218–219
- high costs of, 58–62, 86
- impact on children’s wellbeing, 139–140, 208, 335
- impediments to, 139–140
- means testing, 58, 165, 329, 333–334
- and paid parental leave, 143
- policy, 210
- primary care, 208, 211, 217
- provision of, 334–336
- response to employment, 207–221
  - age of children, 216, 218
  - market time impact on child care time, 215
  - research, 210–212, 220–221
- secondary care, 208, 211, 217
- sole parents, 22–23, 58–62
- subsidies, 2, 137–141
  - work or study requirements, 138
- and women’s workforce participation, 2, 137–141
- child care benefit (CCB), 86, 137–138
- child care rebate (CCR), 86–87, 137–138
- child dependency ratio (CDR), 90–91
- child endowment schemes, 171–181, 183–188
  - background, 171–172, 183–185
  - benefits, 176–177
  - decline, 185
  - family allowance, 185
  - funding, 175–176, 178–179
  - national child endowment scheme, 179–181
  - NSW Family Endowment scheme, 172–174
  - opposition to, 174–175
  - purpose of, 177
  - Royal Commission on Child Endowment, 174–177
  - social insurance scheme, 178–181
- consumption tax, 37. see also GST (goods and services tax)
  - exemptions, 117–118
  - impact on women, 40, 54–56, 115–118, 182
  - as joint taxation, 78
  - regressivity, 118
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), 38, 41, 294–295
  - Australian commitment to, 103–105, 339
  - gender norms, 111
  - protection of access to training and education, 115, 123
- corporate taxation, 36, 39, 50–54, 112, 113
- data sets
  - Australian Time Use Survey (TUS), 210–211, 329–330, 338–339
  - Household, Income and Labour Dynamics in Australia Survey (HILDA), 228–229, 233
- dignity, 108, 300–306. see also human rights
- disability care, 13, 332, 335, 344
- economic value of household labour, 5, 78, 152–154, 166–171
- effective marginal tax rate (EMTR), 19–21, 114–115
  - disincentive effects, 135
  - increase, 183, 187
- elder care, 111, 332, 335, 344. see also aged dependency ratio (ADR)

- election commitments, 1
- employer-provided paid parental leave, 144. see also parental leave and paid parental leave scheme (PPL), 145
- explicit bias, 101–102, 111
- family benefits, 4–5, 79. see also child endowment schemes disincentive to workforce participation, 135–137
 family allowance, 185–186
 indexation of, 186
 means testing, 186, 189, 329, 333–334
 poverty, 186
- family tax benefit part A (FTB-A), 81–86, 135–137
- family tax benefit part B (FTB-B), 135–137
- family tax unit, 78–90
 tax rebates, 185–186
- fathers
 child care time, 22, 209, 213–216 compared with mothers, 217–220, 220–221
 parental leave, 145–146, 153
 as primary breadwinners, 177
- feminism, 327, 331–332. see also women's political activism economics, 107, 163–164
 research history, 4–6
- femocrat, 5, 327, 341
- fertility rates, 15, 70–71. see also birth rates
- G20 women's workforce participation target, 16, 339
- gender budgeting, 35, 38, 62, 105, 295, 327–330, 336, 340, 343. see also gender-responsive budgeting; gender impact analysis
- gender equality, 38. see also human rights; taxing for gender equality economic factors, 43
 fiscal equality, 103
 policy, 328
 progress, 43, 328
 substantive, 101–109
- gender gaps, 3, 163, 189. see also gender pay gap; gender wealth gap higher education, 241–251
 retirement, 307–315, 317, 336
 superannuation, 122–123, 151
 welfare, 181
 workforce participation rates, 308–309
- gender impact analysis, 27–28, 100–101, 330. see also gender budgeting household funds, 116
 lack, 325
 property tax, 119–120
- gender inequality, 99–124
 impact of parenting on career, 148–150
 policy, 344
 tenure, 147
- gender norms, 111, 114–115, 119, 149
 changes in, 164
- gender pay gap, 2, 69–70, 93, 282–283
 Australian average, 48–50, 308
 in business, 53–54
 household income, 116–118
 in top income brackets, 271–272
 university graduates, 252–253
- gender wealth gap, 112, 313–315 and higher education, 249–251 impact of women's workforce participation, 207
 top income brackets, 258, 282–283
- gender-responsive budgeting, 124, 293–295. see also gender budgeting; policy
- gendered spending habits, 116–118
- Gillard, Julia, 2–3, 330
- Global Financial Crisis (GFC), 14, 41, 118, 263

- gross domestic product (GDP), 107, 168–169, 171
- GST (goods and services tax), 54–56.
see also consumption tax
modelling, 118
- HECS (Higher Education Contribution Scheme), 229, 250–251, 252–253, 335
- HECS-HELP (Higher Education Contribution Scheme-Higher Education Loan Program), 8, 24
- higher education, 23–24, 227–253.
see also HECS (Higher Education Contribution Scheme)
- benefits, 229
  - debt, 250–251
  - and earnings, 235–238
  - gender differences in level, 234–235
  - gender gap in costs, 229–230
  - life-cycle analysis, 240–241, 246–249
  - non-monetary costs, 231
  - reasons for undertaking, 227–228
  - returns on investment, 230–233, 241–246
    - cross-sectional analysis, 239–240
    - shortcomings, 249
    - gender gap, 228–230, 235–238, 248–253, 335
    - research, 230–233
    - vocational training, 229
- Higher Education Contribution Scheme. see HECS (Higher Education Contribution Scheme)
- HILDA. see Household, Income and Labour Dynamics in Australia Survey (HILDA)
- Hindu Succession Act 1956* (India), 119
- household finance
- management, 120, 122
  - pensions, 121
  - property transfer, 119–120
  - sharing of funds, 116–118, 172, 312–315, 334
- household labour, 59, 149, 152, 154, 326. see also child care
- balance of child care, 219, 333
  - and market economy, 167, 168–171
- household saving, 89–90
- Household, Income and Labour Dynamics in Australia Survey (HILDA), 228–229, 233
- Howard, John
- conservative government, 41, 329
  - family tax benefit reforms, 79
  - family tax unit proposal, 58
  - superannuation reforms, 263, 301
- human capital, 23–27, 62
- breastfeeding, 169–171
  - development, 168
  - education, 230–231
  - estimate of Australia's value, 162, 189
  - in global knowledge economy, 164
  - human capital earnings function, 230–231, 239–240
  - investment in, 176–177, 189, 230–231, 344–345
  - loss of, 146, 151
- human rights, 15–16, 103–109
- driver of economic reform, 99–100, 124
  - framework for gender equality, 99–124
  - and gross domestic product (GDP), 107
  - treaties, 103–106
- ICESCR. see International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR)

- implicit bias, 101–102, 111, 117
- income inequality, 15, 39, 47, 54
 HECS (Higher Education Contribution Scheme), 253
 income splitting, 276–282
 increase in, 257
 reduction, 332
 retirement, 300, 306–307
 rising, 73–76, 94–95
 top pay brackets, 275
- income sharing, 4, 26
 in households, 116–118, 172, 312–315, 334
- income splitting, 25–26, 57, 58, 81, 119
 examples, 278–281
 limits on, 281–282
 top income brackets, 258–259, 276–282
- income tax, 331–332
 tax-transfer system, 7–8
- inequality. see gender inequality; income inequality
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 103–104, 111, 115, 123, 294–295
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 39, 99–100, 340
- Keating, Paul, 300–301, 316
- labour supply, 87–88, 93. see also Household, Income and Labour Dynamics in Australia Survey (HILDA); workforce participation of women and child care, 137–141 dynamics, 146–148, 249
 government policy impact on, 18, 134–146 incentives, 76–78
 loss, 152
 and paid parental leave, 143
 and parenting, 146–148
- life course analysis, 21, 26, 134, 151, 164, 229, 311
 uncertainty 148
- low income tax offset (LITO), 70–72, 82
- low-income households, 116, 118, 135
 family benefits, 186
 family tax benefit part A (FTB-A), 136
 family tax benefit part B (FTB-B), 136
 parental leave, 144
- macro-economic policy and human rights treaties, 103–106
 impact on gender inequality, 106–108
- marginal tax rate (MTR), 12–14, 79–81
 compared to average tax rate (ATR), 81–86
 and income splitting, 277–281
- means testing, 186, 189, 329, 333–334
- Medicare Levy, 7–8, 75
- minimum wage, 161
- National Foundation for Australian Women (NFAW), 330, 342
- National Women's Tax Summit, 331–332
- neoliberalism. see taxing for growth
- occupations, 53, 58, 110, 144–146, 168
 top incomes, 272–276, 284–289
- Occupy movement, 39
- Office for Women, 325, 328–330.
see also Women's Affairs Office opportunity for policy contribution, 337, 338, 341, 343

Organisation for Economic

Co-operation and Development

(OECD), 37, 38–39, 112

Australia, 87, 115, 142–143,

181, 296

child care costs comparison,

59–60

consumption tax, 116–118

gender budgeting, 336, 340

personal income tax trends, 112

retirement poverty, 301, 303–305

paid parental leave scheme (PPL),

2, 141–146, 153, 187. see also employer-provided paid parental leave; parental leave and employer-provided paid

parental leave, 145

impact on women's workforce participation, 142

parental leave, 152–154, 187–188,

334–335

fathers, 145–146, 153

impact on gender inequality, 171

unpaid parental leave, 144 pay gap. see gender pay gap

personal income tax (PIT), 36, 44–

50, 70, 258–259, 283

and marginal tax rate (MTR),

71–73

progressivity, 112–114, 331–332

reforms, 112

policy, 35–63, 325–345. see also retirement; tax-transfer policy;

tax-transfer system

budget, 327

change, 337–338

child care, 139–140

collaboration, 341–342, 343

conservative government, 37, 41

consistency, 133

cross-sector collaboration, 341–

342

discussion, 341

economic and social, 103, 109

evidence-based, 338–339

gender analysis, 100–101, 343–

345

gender budgeting, 35–36, 38,

327–330, 336

gender impact, 62–63, 154, 325,

336, 338

and human rights, 99–100, 106–

108, 124

impact on labour supply, 134,

152–154

international context, 339–340

labour force participation, 133

networking, 341

policymakers, 340–341

pragmatism, 342

priorities, 337

process reform, 336–343

primary carers, 117, 151, 335

disadvantaged groups, 138, 140

divorce, 148

mothers, 18, 114–115

and paid parental leave (PPL),

142

payments to, 115, 116, 186

Progress of the World's Women (UN Women report), 99–100

progressive tax rates, 11–13

property tax, 119–120

retirement, 26–27, 264, 293–317,

336 adequate income, 293, 299

age of, 305

contribution schemes, 121–122

divorcees, 306

homeownership, 305–306

importance of independent income, 121

income inequality, 306–307

policy, 90–94

adequacy, 301–306

equality, 306–307

- evaluation, 296, 299–301, 316
  - gender analysis, 315–317
  - gender equality, 26–27, 307–315
  - modelling, 303–305, 309
  - three pillars, 296
- poverty, 26, 92, 301–306, 316
- savings, 11, 122, 151
  - gender imbalance, 3
- UN Women recommendations, 122
- women in couples, 312–315
- World Bank framework, 121
- role modelling, 56. see also gender norms
- same-sex couples, 11
- saving, 89–90, 152
  - retirement, 11, 122, 151
  - gender imbalance, 3
  - tax rates, 112
- Shorten, Bill, 1
- social security. see also tax-transfer system
  - funding, 178–179
  - history, 161–162
  - impact on gender equality, 163–166
  - means testing, 333–334, 343
  - overview, 8–14
  - social insurance schemes, 178–179, 180–181
  - taxing for growth, 37
  - wage-based approach, 187
  - work or study requirements, 187
- sole parents, 22–23, 58–62, 116, 135, 171
  - family allowance, 185
  - family tax benefit part B (FTB-B), 126
- spending patterns, 116–118
- superannuation, 151, 296–299
  - compared with age pension, 91–94, 164
  - contributions, 263, 297
  - gender gap, 92–93, 151, 293
  - gender impact analysis, 120–123, 308–312
  - modelling, 303–305
  - policy reform impact, 263–264
  - self-managed superannuation funds (SMSF), 279–280, 333
  - superannuation guarantee scheme (SG), 300–301
  - tax concessions, 182–183
- tax and gender equality, 41–44, 44–56, 188–189
  - in Australia, 48–50, 62–63
  - barriers to women's economic participation, 110–111
  - economic models, 95
  - gender development index (GDI), 42–44
  - human rights approach, 99–124
  - impact of privatisation, 44
  - indirect taxation, 182
  - internationally, 41–43, 45–48
  - macro-economic indicators, 43
  - reforms, 331–336
  - retirement, 315–317
  - saving effects, 89–90
- tax system. see also tax-transfer system
  - child endowment, 179–181
  - corporate taxation, 36, 39, 50–54, 112, 113
  - dependant rebates, 179
  - disadvantages to women, 54, 89–90
  - equality, 4, 36–41
  - gender impact analysis, 100–101
  - optimal tax rates structure, 77
  - progressivity, 46–47, 50–52, 71, 91, 110
  - public infrastructure, 47
  - Reagan, Ronald, 37
  - regressivity, 54–56, 111, 118, 182
  - retirement, 297–299

- revenue categories, 44–46
- revenue loss, 84–86
- second-earner parents, 58–62, 70, 78–79, 86, 183
  - disincentives, 83–84
- superannuation contributions, 263–264, 297
- tax ratios, 41–47, 63
- tax records data, 257–258, 259–260, 339
  - superannuation, 264
- Thatcher, Margaret, 37
- tax unit, 11. see also family tax unit; income splitting
  - corporations, 36
  - couple, 172
  - family, 57–58, 115, 134–135
  - individual, 114–115, 277, 283, 312, 332–334
  - joint taxation, 78–81
    - criticisms, 80–86, 91, 114
    - impacts, 94–95
  - quasi-joint tax unit, 259, 277, 333
- tax-transfer policy, 27–28, 35–63
  - fiscal sustainability, 69–95
  - gender impact analysis, 163–166, 326–327
  - hostility to welfare, 186, 188, 301, 333–334
  - reform, 70, 331–336
  - taxing for gender equality, 38–41, 62–63
    - international comparison, 41–44
  - taxing for growth, 36–38
- tax-transfer system, 134–135, 181–182. see also social security
  - average tax rate (ATR), 75–76
    - averages, 12–13
    - and family payments, 81–83
    - of second-earner parents, 83–84
  - child care, 334–335
  - Commonwealth expenditure, 9
  - Commonwealth income from taxes, 7
  - definition, 1
  - development of, 171–181, 188
  - effective marginal tax rate (EMTR), 19–21
  - gender equality, 14–16, 27–28, 325, 331–336
  - horizontal equity, 183, 334
  - impact on gender, 11, 330
  - income tax, 7–8
  - marginal tax rate (MTR), 12–14, 79–81
    - compared to average tax rate (ATR), 81–86
    - and income splitting, 277–281
  - modelling, 6, 70–71, 77
  - overview, 6–14
  - personal income tax (PIT), 36, 44–50, 70, 258–259, 283
    - and marginal tax rate (MTR), 71–73
    - progressivity, 112–114, 331–332
    - reforms, 112
  - reforms, 94–95, 108–109, 331–336
  - sharing cost of care, 344–345
  - social security, 8–10
  - sole parents, 22–23
  - taxable income, 49
    - and women's workforce participation, 332–333
- taxing for gender equality, 38–41, 294
  - international comparison, 41–44
- taxing for growth, 36–41, 106–107, 123
- top income brackets, 25–26, 52, 70, 76, 91, 95, 257–289, 309, 339
  - age, 267–268
  - in Australia, 258–262, 264–265, 283

- gender analysis, 258, 284–288
- income, 276
- earnings, 271–272
  - wages, 269–270
- income splitting, 258–259, 276–282, 333
- increase in, 257, 262–263
- inheritance vs self-made wealth, 268
- internationally, 265–267, 283
- labour supply elasticity, 76–77
- occupations, 272–276, 284–289
- tax benefits, 188
- tax rates, 70
- tax reforms, 73–74, 76, 91
- women in, 262–267, 267–276
- treaties and agreements. see
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW); G20 women’s workforce participation target; International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR; UN Sustainable Development goals
- Turnbull Government, 15, 16, 111, 263
- child care subsidy, 2, 21
  - Medicare levy, 7–8
  - superannuation, 299
- Turnbull, Malcolm, 337
- feminist, 1
- UN Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women, 40–41
- UN High-Level Panel on Women’s Economic Empowerment, 62–63
- UN Special Rapporteur on Extreme Poverty and Human Rights, 40
- UN Sustainable Development goals, 339–340
- UN Women, 99–100, 108–109, 124
- fiscal equality, 103
  - legal vs substantive equality, 101–102
  - property rights, 120
  - retirement, 122
  - tax system recommendations, 110
- unemployment, 146–148
- universal entitlement, 333, 343
- age pension, 93, 121
  - family allowances, 70, 79, 135, 185, 189
  - paid parental leave, 141–142, 144–145
- wages, 171–174
- compared with earnings, 271–272
  - top income bracket occupations, 272–276
  - top income brackets, 269–270
  - wage arbitration, 174–177
- welfare. see also social security
- age pension, 301
  - overview, 8–14
  - welfare capitalism, 164–165
- women. see also gender gaps
- assets, 119–120
  - in business, 62
  - divorce, 151, 152, 306, 334
  - economic security, 62–63
  - equal pay, 173, 186
  - high cost of caregiving, 151, 152
  - independent of marital unit, 57–58, 165
  - institutionalised dependence, 161, 176
  - life cycle labour supply, 87–88, 133–154
  - life expectancy, 268
  - lifetime earnings, 282–283
  - parenting, 148–149
  - as primary carers, 186
  - representation, 3
  - social roles, 56
  - in top income brackets, 262–267
  - in Australia, 264–265

TAX, SOCIAL POLICY AND GENDER

- characteristics of, 267–276
  - internationally, 265–267
- Women's Affairs Office, 328. see also
  - Office for Women
- Women's Budget Statement, 328–330, 344
- Women's Electoral Lobby (WEL), 5, 331, 341
- women's political activism
  - background, 327–328
  - femocrats, 5, 327–328, 341
- workforce participation of women,
  - 16–19, 122, 207–221, 311
  - barriers, 114, 141
  - early childhood care, 170–171
  - effect of government policy,
    - 133–154
  - employment opportunities, 106
  - expected occupations, 111
  - growth, 142
  - impact on child care, 21–22,
    - 216–221
  - impact on children, 207
  - labour market discrimination, 328
  - life cycle labour supply, 87–88,
    - 133–154
  - marginalisation of women, 56–62
  - overemphasis on increasing, 165
  - and parenting, 146–148, 148–150, 152–154
  - policy, 210, 326
  - requirement of social security, 187
  - retirement impact, 303–305
  - sole parents, 171
  - and tax-transfer system, 332–333
- Workplace Gender Equality Agency (WGEA), 2

This text is taken from Tax, Social Policy and Gender: Rethinking equality and efficiency, edited by Miranda Stewart, published 2017 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.