
HUMAN ECOLOGY REVIEW

Special Issue: Human Ecology—A Gathering of Perspectives:
Portraits from the Past—Prospects for the Future

Volume 23, Number 2, 2017

RESEARCH AND THEORY IN HUMAN ECOLOGY

- A Century of Human Ecology: Recollections and Tributes—
On the Occasion of the 100th Anniversary of the Ecological Society of America 3
Section Editor: Richard J. Borden
- A Brief History of Human Ecology within the Ecological Society of America and Speculation on Future Direction 7
Section Editor: Robert Dyball
- Ellen Swallow Richards: Mother of Human Ecology? 17
Robert Dyball and Liesel Carlsson
- Paul Sears: Cautious “Subversive” Ecologist 29
Gene Cittadino
- Frank Golley’s Perspectives on Environmental Ethics and Literacy:
How to Avoid Irreversible Impacts of Hydro-Power and Inter-Oceanic
Canal Development on Mesoamerican Tropical Ecosystems 39
Alan P. Covich
- Rachel Carson: Saint or Sinner? 55
Mark Hamilton Lytle
- René Dubos: Wooing the Earth, from Soil Microbes to Human Ecology 65
Carol L. Moberg
- Healing the Earth: The Relevance of Ian McHarg’s Work for the Future 75
Frederick Steiner
- Gregory Bateson’s Search for “Patterns Which Connect” Ecology
and Mind 87
Richard J. Borden

REPRODUCED MANUSCRIPTS

Introduction to Garrett Hardin's "Human Ecology: The Subversive, Conservative Science"	99
Richard J. Borden
Human Ecology: The Subversive, Conservative Science	101
Garret Hardin
Introduction to Philip J. Stewart's "Meaning in Human Ecology"	113
John Schooneveldt
Meaning in Human Ecology	115
Philip J. Stewart
Introduction to John Visvader's "Philosophy and Human Ecology"	123
William Throop
Philosophy and Human Ecology	125
John Visvader
Contributors to this issue	135
