

List of tables

Table 5.1: The development of indicators of rights of recognition for Yawuru	101
Table 5.2: Expressions of self-determination by Yawuru women and men.	104
Table 7.1: Welfare streams for people with disabilities according to assessed work capacity	136
Table 9.1: Case study field visits: Respondent numbers	171
Table 9.2: Comparison of rating averages of satisfaction levels with housing and housing management	179
Table 14.1: Māori and neoliberal principles	260
Table 14.2: Māori Party policy challenged and extended neoliberalism	268
Table 15.1: Pāua value in the quota market in the 2014–15 fishing year.	284
Table 16.1: Elements of a Te Arawa Lakes Trust diverse economy. . .	302

This text is taken from The Neoliberal State, Recognition and Indigenous Rights: New paternalism to new imaginings, edited by Deirdre Howard-Wagner, Maria Bargh and Isabel Altamirano-Jiménez, published 2018 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.