

ILLUSTRATIONS

Figure 1.1: Young men and boys at the top of Arguluk Hill looking down on the Oenpelli mission, 1930	2
Figure 1.2: Alfred and Mary Dyer, date unknown	2
Figure 2.1: Rock painting of Yingarna, Injalak Hill	14
Figure 2.2: Northern Running Figure rock art from Injalak Hill	14
Figure 2.3: Painting by Tony Bangalang (2003) that represents the key cultural sites around the Oenpelli township through their associated ancestral beings	16
Figure 2.4: Kinship subsections of western Arnhem Land.	17
Figure 2.5: Men gathered for ceremony following a burial, c. 1926. Nipper Marakarra Gumurdul is pictured centre	18
Figure 3.1: Map showing location of Oenpelli	22
Figure 3.2: ‘Native Camp, Port Essington’, 1877	23
Figure 3.3: Reuben Cooper sitting on a wounded buffalo surrounded by the shooting and skinning team, c. 1914–17	24
Figure 3.4: Buffalo shooters ‘dining’ on the carcass of the buffalo with photographer Edward Frederick Reichenbach (Ted Ryko) pictured front right, c. 1914–17	24
Figure 3.5: Paddy Cahill and Quilp (on horses) with other buffalo shooters in the background near Oenpelli (Gunbalanya), c. 1901	25
Figure 3.6: Senior Traditional Owner for the Oenpelli area, Nipper Marakarra Gumurdul, photographed in 1948	26
Figure 3.7: Left to right: Ruby Mudford (Roney), Paddy Cahill, unidentified man, Maria Cahill and Quilp (possibly) (date unknown)	27
Figure 3.8: Paddy Cahill, his son Tom Cahill, Maria Cahill and Ruby Mudford (later Roney) with unidentified Aboriginal children, Oenpelli, c. 1912	29

Figure 3.9: The Cahill settlement at Oenpelli with Arrkuluk Hill in the background, c. 1912–14 30

Figure 3.10: Two unidentified Aboriginal men standing out the front of a house designed by Paddy Cahill and built by local Aboriginal people in Oenpelli (date unknown) 31

Figure 3.11: Women and children gathered at the Oenpelli settlement, c. 1917 34

Figure 3.12: Four Aboriginal men competing in local ‘games’ possibly on Christmas Day, c. 1922. Paddy Cahill is seen standing at the back and his wife Maria is seated with an umbrella 34

Figure 4.1: ‘Native Congregation, Oenpelli Mission’, 1928 41

Figure 4.2: Mary and Alf Dyer (date unknown) 44

Figure 4.3: ‘Mrs Dyer teaching in open air, Oenpelli’ (date unknown) 47

Figure 5.1: Loading buffalo hides on ship (date unknown) 51

Figure 5.2: ‘Buffalo shot for meat’ (date unknown) 51

Figure 5.3: Gurrwek (left) with baby Albert Balmana, and unidentified woman and baby (right) (date unknown) 54

Figure 5.4: View of the old Cahill buildings when the Dyers first arrived (date unknown) 59

Figure 5.5: Narma Ramagul and Naganiki, 1925 59

Figure 5.6: ‘Three young hopefuls’ (date unknown) 62

Figure 5.7: ‘Women pounding up antbed for flooring in place of cement’ (date unknown) 65

Figure 5.8: House and other buildings, c. 1926 68

Figure 5.9: View of the early buildings with Arrkuluk Hill in background (date unknown) 68

Figure 5.10: Frank ‘Naluwud’ with decaying leg, 1925 70

Figure 5.11: ‘Gaol for cattle killers Service 4 languages bark verandah Oenpelli 1925’. Paddy Cahill’s old gaol was used by Dyer as a girl’s dormitory 76

Figure 5.12: Young boys of the Oenpelli mission, most likely boys from the dormitory (date unknown) 76

Figure 5.13: ‘Cattle killers’ (date unknown) 78

Figure 5.14: Goats on the edge of the billabong (date unknown) 81

Figure 5.15: ‘Bringing in a letter Oenpelli Native and White one. Bodies sprayed with paint blowed on by mouth’ (date unknown) 81

Figure 5.16: Boys with their garden harvest (date unknown)	83
Figure 5.17: Babies in irrigation channel (date unknown)	84
Figure 5.18: Young girls at OenPELLI mission, c. 1929.	86
Figure 5.19: Alf Dyer's vision for OenPELLI, 1925	88
Figure 5.20: 'Harry' (date unknown)	94
Figure 5.21: Man with family being treated at the dispensary (date unknown).	97
Figure 5.22: Man with fish caught in nearby billabong (date unknown).	100
Figure 5.23: Fishing in the OenPELLI billabong. Elizabeth Garabbunba (‘Carabumba’) stands in the foreground possibly with her husband ‘Gamarad’ (date unknown)	101
Figure 5.24: Man making bush string while another holds a spear, bush camp near OenPELLI (date unknown).	102
Figure 5.25: Men and boys at OenPELLI, standing around large wagon (date unknown).	106
Figure 5.26: Raising the flag, OenPELLI mission (date unknown).	106
Figure 5.27: Pulling teeth (date unknown)	107
Figure 5.28: Stockman breaking in horse, Arrkuluk Hill in background (date unknown).	107
Figure 5.29: Two men examining a paw paw tree (date unknown)	109
Figure 5.30: Mrs Dyer, dormitory girls and Aboriginal women from mission. Elwyndiwyndi can be seen at back left (date unknown).	112
Figure 5.31: Building Aboriginal houses (date unknown)	114
Figure 5.32: Aboriginal stockmen preparing horses for cattle mustering (date unknown)	114
Figure 5.33: Planting rice, 1927	117
Figure 5.34: Tractor with dray (date unknown)	117
Figure 5.35: School class, 1927.	119
Figure 5.36: ‘David’ Namilmil (date unknown)	120
Figure 5.37: Mission garden (date unknown)	121
Figure 5.38: Mission gardens/crops (date unknown).	121
Figure 5.39: Working in the mission gardens (date unknown)	122
Figure 5.40: A later photograph of Nangalbered (‘Narlbretr’), 1950	125

Figure 5.41: ‘Butter Factory, boys on Xmas day 1925’. The old Paddy Cahill—era butter factory is in the background. In the foreground, the children are playing with their Christmas presents. 126

Figure 5.42: Child on edge of billabong (date unknown) 131

Figure 5.43: Young child at mission (date unknown) 132

Figure 5.44: Nagal and Narlim, c. 1926 135

Figure 5.45: ‘Narlim, stock-worker, about 1929’ 136

Figure 5.46: Nipper Marakarra Gumurdul standing behind seated man. Frank ‘Naluwud’ Girrabul on crutches (date unknown) 140

Figure 5.47: Stockyards with Arrkuluk Hill visible in the background (date unknown). 143

Figure 5.48: Children at the Oenpelli mission, 1928 144

Figure 5.49: ‘Ship Mary on a reef’ (date unknown) 147

Figure 5.50: Frank Naluwad and Lazarus Arawingi (date unknown). 148

Figure 5.51: ‘Children Xmas receiving bags 1929’ 151

Figure 5.52: Group photo outside the new church (date unknown) 154

Figure 5.53: Young girl (date unknown) 155

Figure 5.54: ‘Group at Oenpelli[,] Miss Sherren’s [Sherrin’s] room at the back 1929’. Rev. Dyer is standing at the back while his father is seated in the centre of the photo next to Mary Dyer. The other two balanda women are Miss Florence Sherrin and Mrs Thorne 160

Figure 5.55: The lugger Mary with ‘Ned Lilly’ looking through life buoy and unidentified Aboriginal crew member, c. 1929 166

Figure 5.56: Steam boiler near the edge of the billabong (date unknown). . . 167

Figure 5.57: Mrs Dyer handing out dresses to the women (date unknown). . . 170

Figure 5.58: Old woman living at the Oenpelli mission (date unknown) . . . 175

Figure 5.59: Elderly couple living at Oenpelli mission, c. 1925 176

Figure 5.60: Group of children (with onlooker in the background) (date unknown). 182

Figure 5.61: Scene of activity, 1929 189

Figure 5.62: Two Aboriginal men from the Oenpelli mission (date unknown). 191

Figure 5.63: Stockyards (date unknown) 192

Figure 5.64: Oenpelli mission (date unknown). 194

Figure 5.65: Handing out bags or fabric (date unknown) 195

Figure 5.66: Oenpelli mission (date unknown)	195
Figure 5.67: Caryl/Karil (later Rachel) caring for young child, Injalak Hill in background (date unknown)	200
Figure 5.68: Buffalo hides (date unknown)	203
Figure 5.69: Worker on the mission (date unknown)	205
Figure 5.70: Aboriginal man at the mission (date unknown)	209
Figure 5.71: Group of children and men with Audrey Clymo seated in centre at front, 1930	220
Figure 5.72: Elizabeth Garabbunba ('Carabumba') (date unknown)	221
Figure 5.73: 'Black Dr who threatened to kill me brings his 2 children in[,] Notice heathen faces' (date unknown)	222
Figure 5.74: Elwyndiwyndi, 1926	226
Figure 5.75: Garijala one of the first pupils helping to teach a class (date unknown)	226
Figures 5.76a and 5.76b: Joseph and Elizabeth Garabbunba ('Carabumba') (date unknown)	227
Figure 5.77: Aboriginal man at mission (date unknown)	230
Figure 5.78: Aboriginal man from mission (date unknown)	234
Figure 5.79: Three young boys (date unknown)	238
Figure 5.80: Bark paintings at Oenpelli mission (date unknown)	241
Figure 5.81: Men dancing for ceremony (possibly as part of burial ceremony). Nipper Marakarra Gumurdul holding spearthrower (date unknown)	244
Figure 5.82: Women dancing for ceremony (date unknown)	245
Figure 5.83: Women dancing for ceremony (date unknown)	245
Figure 5.84: Men, women and children crowded around a tractor at Oenpelli mission (date unknown)	248
Figure 5.85: Sketch of proposed changes to home, from Mary C. Dyer's letter to Mr J.W. Ferrier, dated 10 July 1930	251
Figure 5.86: Stockmen (date unknown)	253
Figure 5.87: Stockman and horse (date unknown)	253
Figure 5.88: 'Launching the JW Ferrier' (date unknown)	257
Figure 5.89: Group of girls (date unknown)	258
Figure 5.90: Boat moored on the East Alligator River (date unknown)	258
Figure 5.91: Elderly couple and their son (date unknown)	261

Figure 5.92: Group photo (date unknown) 265

Figure 5.93: Quilp, a head stockman at Oenpelli (date unknown) 268

Figure 5.94: ‘Dormitory girls outside new dormitory. Mt Agarluk [Arrkuluk] in background. Mrs Clymo’s daughter [Audrey] with hat and Hazel (halfcaste just in front of her)’ (date unknown) 271

Figure 5.95: Stockmen with sheds in the background (date unknown) 271

Figure 5.96: ‘Staff of Oenpelli Mission – 1931’ 276

Figure 5.97: Visit to Red Lily (date unknown) 276

Figure 5.98: Christmas Day games (date unknown) 277

Figure 5.99: Keith Langford Smith, first flight to arrive in Oenpelli (heading to Roper River), 1931. Aboriginal housing can be seen in the background 282

Figure 5.100: ‘Keith Langford Smith’s plane in peanut patch’, chapel can be seen on the right-hand side (date unknown) 283

Figure 5.101: Keith Langford Smith lands in Oenpelli, 1931 283

Figure 6.1: Esther Manakgu, 2012 285

Figure 6.2: Girls outside dormitory (date unknown) 288

Figure 6.3: Esther Manakgu, 2012 296

This text is taken from The Bible in Buffalo Country: Oenpelli Mission 1925–1931, by Sally K. May, Laura Rademaker, Donna Nadjamerrek and Julie Narndal Gumurdul, published 2020 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.