The research reported in this monograph was conducted with financial support from the Ministerial Council for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Affairs (MCATSIA) through the Indigenous Population Project based at the Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research, in the College of Arts and Social Sciences, at The Australian National University. The results of part of this research project were presented at a seminar at the University of Canberra and we thank the participants at the seminar for their constructive feedback; we are also grateful to MCATSIA and its various State and Federal stakeholders for useful comments on this research. We are especially indebted to Gillian Cosgrove for preparation of the graphics, layout and final document and Hilary Bek for expert editorial advice. Last but not least, we would like to thank the two external referees for this volume, Dr Anne Daly from the University of Canberra and Dr Martin Cooke from the University of Waterloo, for their generous time in providing constructive feedback.
