List of figures

1 Glen Croe with forest plantations ca. 2005.
2 Acquisition of plantable land by the Forestry Commission in Scotland, England and Wales, 1920–1980
1.1 Four-thousand-year-old tree remains at Loch an Alltan Fheàrna, Sutherland, northern Scotland.
1.2 The Lorn Furnace at Bonawe on the banks of Loch Etive.
2.1 Log Floaters on the River Spey, ca. 1900.
3.1 Scots pine in Glen Affric.
3.2 Sitka spruce plantation.
3.3 Loch Ossian and the Corrour plantations.
3.4 Belgium system for planting on peat.
3.5 Experimental ploughing on the Lon Mor, ca. 1927.
3.6 Mechanical ploughing at Glenbranter in the early 1970s.
3.7 Aerial fertilising by helicopter.
4.1 Even-aged high forest Scots pine plantation.
5.1 Number of camper nights on Forestry Commission campsites, 1950–1975.
7.1 Pinewood with Beinn Eighe in the background.
8.1 Geometric blocks of conifers in the landscape, Sutherland, northern Scotland.
9.1 Aerial view of the Flow Country in Sutherland.
9.2 Restoration of an Atlantic oak wood in the Loch Awe area ca. 2000.  