

Primary Sources and Translations

The main body of my primary research material is held at the Strehlow Research Centre in Alice Springs, Central Australia. Other primary sources are held in capital cities of Australia, Germany and England.

English quotations from Carl Strehlow's magnum opus Die Aranda- und Loritja-Stämme in Zentral-Australien are extracted from the unpublished Oberscheidt translation (1991), all other quotations from Carl Strehlow's unpublished manuscripts and letters are based on my translations if not otherwise indicated.
