

Illustrations

1	Engraving of Eliza Fraser.	11
2	Ka'bi country: the long trek south, Fraser Island.	15
3	Marshy ground on the banks of the Noosa River near Fig Tree Point, where Eliza Fraser lived with the Ka'bi people.	20
4	Eliza Davies.	29
5	Eliza Davies in boat, Ngarrindjeri family left foreground.	39
6	Thomas and Emily Cowl, 'The Event of their Golden Wedding'.	51
7	Katherine Hamilton, later Kirkland.	73
8	Trawalla Homestead.	84
9	Katherine Kirkland's dairy.	88
10	David and Mary McConnel.	99
11	Bulimba homestead, now located in the Brisbane suburb, Bulimba.	104
12	Cressbrook homestead, Dungibara left foreground.	112
13	Dungibara child wearing red coat.	118
14	McConnel family at Cressbrook station, c. 1887.	123
15	Rose Scott Cowen.	125
16	Tambo station, 1880.	128
17	Farm buildings, Tambo station.	131
18	'My beloved West'.	133

This text taken from In the Eye of the Beholder: What Six Nineteenth-century Women Tell Us About Indigenous Authority and Identity, by Barbara Dawson, published 2014 by ANU Press, The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.