Power and International Relations

Essays in Honour of Coral Bell

Edited by Desmond Ball and Sheryn Lee
Power and International Relations
Essays in Honour of Coral Bell

Edited by Desmond Ball and Sheryn Lee
Contents

Contributors ................................................. vii
Photos ......................................................... xi
Introduction .................................................... 1
  Desmond Ball and Sheryn Lee

Part 1: Coral Bell: The Person and the Scholar

1. Coral’s Early Life ........................................ 11
   Harry Bell

2. From External Affairs to Academia: Coral’s Encounter with the KGB’s Spy Ring in Australia ..................... 13
   Desmond Ball

3. Coral Bell: A Preoccupation with Armageddon ............ 17
   Geoffrey Barker

4. Coral Bell: Recollections of an Optimistic Realist .......... 23
   Meredith Thatcher

5. Coral Bell and Her Mark on Strategic Studies ............. 33
   Robert O’Neill

Part 2: Understanding International Relations

6. The Interpretation of Power Politics: Coral Bell’s
   International Thought .................................... 45
   Ian Hall

7. The Importance of Being Coral Bell. ........................ 57
   JDB Miller

8. Coral Bell and the Classical Realist Tradition ............ 61
   James L Richardson

Part 3: The Practice of Power Politics

9. Realist Optimist: Coral Bell’s Contribution to Australian
   Foreign and Defence Policy .............................. 67
   Brendan Taylor

10. Interpreting the Cold War ................................. 79
    Michael Wesley

11. Coral Bell and the Conventions of Crisis Management ....... 93
    Robert Ayson

12. Coral Bell’s Alliance Politics: Practitioner and Pundit .... 105
    William T Tow
13. Coral Bell and the Concert of Power: Avoiding Armageddon ............... 119
   Hugh White

Appendix: Coral’s Publications ........................................ 133