

Acknowledgements

The editors are grateful for ANZSOG's support for this initiative and to Professor John Wanna and John Butcher for their help in preparing the manuscript for publication. We also wish to thank the Australian Institute of International Affairs Canberra Branch for their efforts in organising this project on the role of secretaries of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade in managing Australia foreign policy, particularly at a period of considerable change in Australia and in the world. We are most grateful to John Nethercote for his generous guidance and assistance in the preparation of this manuscript and to a former DFAT colleague for comments and suggestions on the prologue. The editors would also like to acknowledge the strong and unflagging support for this project from AIIA Canberra Branch Presidents Peter Hendy and Ian Dudgeon, as well as AIIA National CEO Melissa Conley-Tyler.