‘The axe had never sounded’

place, people and heritage of Recherche Bay, Tasmania
‘The axe had never sounded’

place, people and heritage of Recherche Bay, Tasmania

John Mulvaney
'We were filled with admiration at the sight of these ancient forests, in which the axe had never sounded'
Labillardiére 1792
Contents

Foreword xi
Introduction xvii
Acknowledgements xxii
Chapter 1. Setting Out 1
  The Officers 3
  The Savants 5
  Ships and Stores 10
Chapter 2. Recherche Bay 13
  Recherche Bay, revisited summer 1793 19
Chapter 3. Naturalists Ashore 25
Chapter 4. Botanising 31
  The Garden 36
Chapter 5. Measuring and Charting 41
Chapter 6. Seeking the Tasmanians 53
Chapter 7. Meeting the Tasmanians 63
Chapter 8. An Archaeological Heritage 75
Chapter 9. Labillardière’s Luck 81
Chapter 10. Retrospect: Recherche Bay, History and Anthropology 87
Chapter 11. The Chaotic Years 93
  Whaling 93
  Piracy on the Brig Cyprus 96
Chapter 12. Lady Jane at Recherche Bay 103
Chapter 13. Good and Bad Times 107
  Coal Mining 110
  James Craig 113
Chapter 14. The Concept of Heritage 117
Chapter 15. National Heritage Nomination 127
  The Dénouement 134
References 137
Illustrations

Aerial view of northern area of Recherche Bay, 2005. xi
Recherche Bay, north-eastern peninsula from the air, 2005. xiii
Map 1: South-eastern Tasmania. xiv
Map 2: Recherche Bay, showing places mentioned in the text. xv
Recherche and Espérance under way. 1
Antoine-Joseph-Bruny d’Entrecasteaux, 1737-1793. 2
Jacques-Julien Houton de Labillardière. 6
Recherche Bay entrance from Benetts Point. 14
Looking towards Mt La Perouse from the 1792 beach. 16
The enigmatic stone structure at Benetts Point. 18
Beaumais-Beaupré’s chart of the northern harbour. 21
Type specimen of Eucalyptus globulus (blue gum). 33
The ‘garden’ in 2003, outlined by rocks. 38
The dip needle used by Rossel. 42
de Borda’s ‘cercle répétiteur’ (left) and ‘cercle de reflexion’ (right). 43
Beaumais-Beaupré’s chart of Rocky Bay, southern Recherche Bay. 46
Beaumais-Beaupré’s chart of D’Entrecasteaux Channel. 49
View of Rocky Bay from 1793 watering place. 50
‘Aborigines of Van Diemen’s Land preparing a meal’, [‘Sauvages du Cap de Diemen preparant leur repas’], Jean Piron, 1793. 66
‘Tasmanians preparing a meal from the sea’, [‘Peche des sauvages du Cap de Diemen’], Jean Piron, 1793. 68
Quiet Cove, 2006. 69
Imlay shore-based whaling station. 94
Fisher Point pilot station and pub, 2006. 95
Woodcut of Cyprus castaways attributed to W. B. Gould, 1829. 97
Machinery at Leprena mill site. 108
Leprena timber mill site. 109
Timber mill remains, Cockle Creek. 110
Base of coal storage bin, Evoralls Point. 111
Overturned tram engine near Evoralls Point. 112
James Craig (then the Clan Macleod), New York harbour 1890. 113
"The axe had never sounded"

James Craig submerged, 1960s, Recherche Bay. 114
The logging track through Southport Lagoon Conservation Area, 2005. 123
Mulvaney addressing the April 2005 rally. 129