Aboriginal History aims to present articles and information in the field of Australian ethnohistory, particularly in the post-contact history of the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders. Historical studies based on anthropological, archaeological, linguistic and sociological research, including comparative studies of other ethnic groups such as Pacific Islanders in Australia, will be welcomed. Future issues will include recorded oral traditions and biographies, vernacular narratives with translations, previously unpublished manuscript accounts, résumés of current events, archival and bibliographical articles, and book reviews.

Aboriginal History is administered by an Editorial Board which is responsible for all unsigned material in the journal. Views and opinions expressed by the authors of signed articles and reviews are not necessarily shared by Board members. The editors invite contributions for consideration; reviews will be commissioned by the review editor.

Contributions and correspondence should be sent to: The Editors, Aboriginal History, c/- Department of Pacific and Southeast Asian History, Australian National University, P.O. Box 4, Canberra, A.C.T. 2600. Inquiries about subscriptions should be addressed to: Australian National University Press, P.O. Box 4, Canberra, A.C.T. 2600.
