

CONTENTS

	Preface	ix
1	Brij V. Lal Fijicoup.com	1
2	Brij V. Lal The Sun Set at Noon Today	8
3	Hugh Laracy An Historic View of Fiji	18
4	Tevita Baleiwaqa Reflections on the Civilian Coup in Fiji	24
5	Teresia Teaiwa An Analysis of the Current Political Crisis in Fiji	31
6	Yash Ghai Constitutional Order in Multi-Ethnic Societies	35
7	Mere Tuisalalo Thoughts on Fiji's Third Coup D'Etat Samisoni	39
8	Taina Woodward On Being Fijian	47
9	Usha Sundar Harris Outcasts of the Pacific	56
10	Vijay Mishra Race, Speight and the Crisis in Fiji	60
11	John D. Kelly & Martha Kaplan Peace in Fiji	65
12	Christine Weir On Reconciliation	69
13	Bruce Connew Two Countries Called Fiji	71
14	Sir Vijay R. Singh Living in Unusual Times	81
15	Daryl Tarte Who Will Pick up the Pieces?	91
16	Phil Thornton Fiji Villagers' Bus Trip to Freedom	94
17	Mark Revington Guns and Money	98
18	Jone Dakuvula Conversations at Mahendra Chaudhry's Home	103
19	Roderick Ewins Fiji's New Western Confederacy	107

20	Victor Lal	The 'Ghostly Smell' of Indian Coolies too Strong for Speight	113
21	Sanjay Ramesh	The Race Bandwagon	117
22	Graeme Dobell	The Strange Saga of Speight's Siege in Suva	126
23	Mahendra Chaudhry	Chaudhry's Last Public Address before He Was Made Hostage	137
24	George Speight	Confidential Draft and Statement of 22 May 2000	147
25	Pratap Chand & Jokapeci Koroi	Statement to the Commonwealth by the Fiji People's Coalition Government	154
26	Felix Anthony	Statement to the Members of the Commonwealth Ministerial Group	161
27	Iliatia Sevati Tuwere	Statement of the Methodist Church in Fiji and Rotuma on the Armed Seizure of Government	168
28	Tomasi Kanailagi	A Public Statement by the President of the Methodist Church in Fiji	174
		Coup Timeline 1987–2001	180
		Sources for Previously Published Chapters	184
		Contributors	185