

Dedication

Dedicated to the memory of my mother, Mary Allbrook (née Wilsdon), 1921-1998, whose love and belief were unwavering and unconditional, and whose passion for music, song and story infused my life-long interest in history.

This text taken from Henry Prinsep's Empire: Framing a distant colony, by Malcolm Allbrook, published 2014 by ANU Press,
The Australian National University, Canberra, Australia.